THE MATING GAME

A Comedy by Robin Hawdon

PREVIEWS JULY 7 • OPENS JULY 8
 DIRECTED BY Ed Thomason
 FEATURING Jeremy Webb, Christian Murray, Genevieve Steele,
 Francine Deschepper & Shelley Thompson
 ALL PERFORMANCES AT BAUER THEATRE

“Audiences nearly raised the roof!”
 - The Daily Telegraph

In spite of his reputation for dating glamorous women, hugely successful chat show host, Drake Harris, has never got past first base with any of them! Drake's romantic interludes are always interrupted by accidents, fate or his own incompetence. Enter his long-lost, worldly-wise brother, James, who targets a new sexy PR assistant, Honey Took, as the one. What neither brother anticipates is that Drake's long-suffering secretary, Julia, has other ideas. This sparkling and hilarious comedy has played to packed house all around the world since its hit premiere in London.

SLEUTH

A Thriller by Anthony Shaffer

PREVIEWS JULY 14 • OPENS JULY 15
 DIRECTED BY Robert Metcalfe
 FEATURING Ed Thomason & Jeremy Webb
 ALL PERFORMANCES AT BAUER THEATRE

“The best thriller I have ever seen.” - The Times

This Tony Award-winner clocked up over 4000 performances in London and on Broadway. Elegantly witty and full of surprises, Sleuth begins when mystery writer, Andrew Wyke, invites young businessman Milo Tindle to his mansion for a drink and a chat about Milo's affair with Andrew's wife. Andrew is cynical about marriage, while Milo is passionate and sincere in his love for the older man's wife. When Andrew proposes an unusual plan that would serve both their needs, Milo's response triggers a chain of events that leaves bodies on the carpet, blood on the stairs and detectives at the door.

 FEATURING Francine Deschepper, Genevieve Steele, Jeremy Webb,
 Christian Murray, Ed Thomason & Shelley Thompson
 ALL PERFORMANCES AT BAUER THEATRE

“Foster's best play...the laughter never stops.”
 - The London Mercury

In this hilarious romantic comedy by Canada's funniest playwright we join the Duncan family as they prepare for the wedding of their daughter. It's the night before the big day, everything is going to plan at the rehearsal party until Maggie's older sister discovers she knows the groom a little better than Maggie would like her to...

August 4, 5, 6, 7, 11, 14, 17, 20, 23, 26 & 28
 For showtimes see 'Maggie' on schedule.

MUNSCHA MEEYAH!

New Adaptations of Robert Munsch Favourites

OPENS JULY 12
 ADAPTED BY Deb Patterson
 DIRECTED BY Richie Wilcox
 FEATURING the Festival Antigonish Young Company
 ALL PERFORMANCES AT IMMACULATA HALL

Here we go again! More stories from Canada's most loved children's author brought to vibrant life on the stage. This year, we'll be pushing the bounds of music and Munsch, with lots of high-octane energy and loads of laughs. Some familiar favourites like Stephanie's Ponytail, Jonathan Cleaned Up - Then He Heard a Sound, Aaron's Hair, and some new ones like Down the Drain and Sandcastle Contest will have the young at heart of all ages singing along.

July 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 & 31

IN 2009, TWO AWARDS were created for participants in our Youth Theatre Camp. The Addy Doucette Award recognizes outstanding achievement by a performer or a technically inclined participant developing backstage skills. Thanks to the generous support of Dr. Donald Johnston, the second award, the Dr. Donald Johnston Bursary ($500), recognizes outstanding potential and is to be used by the recipient for tuition costs for theatre, music or dance training. For information on last year's award winners, please see our website at www.festivalantigonish.com
